Forget flowers. Nothing says Valentine's Day like squeezing into a cozy corner booth with your love. Fortunately for us, Dallas-Fort Worth bars and restaurants have something for just about everyone this February: rooftop parties for singles, mini golf for casual couples, Galentine's brunches and, of course, romantic dinners for two. Reservations are recommended.

ANOTHER ROUND For something different, try this indoor mini golf venue and bar in West Dallas. Couples or friends can compete against one another for prizes in a game inspired by the TikTok pick-a-card date challenge. $14 for two people for the add-on card game and two chocolate-covered strawberry cocktail shots or two mocktails. Available through Feb. 14. 660 Fort Worth Ave., Dallas. anotherrounddallas.com.

APOTHECARY Celebrate Galentine's Day on Feb. 13 with Champagne and charcuterie. Reservations for parties up to eight range from $85 to $235. The regular menu will also be available, as well as oyster specials. Then on Valentine's Day, diners can enjoy a seven-course menu with oyster French onion soup, caviar cannoli, pad Thai terrine, squab, rack of lamb and crème brûlée. $145 per person. Checks will include an additional 3% charge to help fund a new employee benefits plan. 1922 Greenville Ave., Dallas. apothecary.bar.

BACCHUS KITCHEN + BAR Reserve a private dining bubble Feb. 13-14 on the restaurant's lawn overlooking the vintage railroad in Grapevine. The bubble includes a four-course prix fixe menu, chocolate-covered strawberries, a bottle of bubbles and fondue for $200 a person. 215 E. Dallas Road, Grapevine. bacchustx.com.

THE BEAST AND CO. This Fort Worth spot is serving two tasting menus, one for omnivores and one for herbivores, on Feb. 10, 11 and 14. The omnivore menu will feature cured or king salmon and scallops with braised mushrooms and smoked
